

SKYPE CULMINATING PROJECT

Rubric for Booktalk Assessment – 10th Grade

	Excellent 93%-100%	Adequate 83%-92%	Deficient <83%
Preparation	Student has rehearsed and is prepared to deliver book talk.	Student has done the reading, but may have needed more rehearsals.	Student has not read entire text and is not prepared.
Speaking Skills	Volume is loud enough to be heard by all. Pitch was often used and it conveyed emotions appropriately.	Volume is loud enough to be heard by all 90% of the time. Pitch was often used but the emotion it conveyed sometimes did not fit the content.	Volume is loud enough to be heard by all 80% of the time or too soft to be heard by all. Pitch was not used, rarely used, OR the emotion it conveyed did not fit the content.
Content	Shows full understanding of the book. Hooks the audience.	Shows a good understanding of the book.	Shows an understanding of parts of the book or does not seem to understand the book.
Literary Element	Identifies literary element and supports with evidence from book.	Identifies literary element but does not support with evidence from book.	Does not identify literary element or support with evidence from book.
Stays on Topic	Stays on topic 100% of the time.	Stays on topic most of the time (90%).	Stays on topic some of the time (80% or less). Got off topic or could not tell what topic was.
States Title / Author	Clearly states title and author at the beginning and end of the booktalk.	States title and author at beginning or end.	Forgets title or author at beginning or end or states incompletely. Forgets to mention title and author.
Enthusiasm	Body language and facial expressions are used to generate enthusiasm about the book.	Body language and facial expressions are sometimes used to generate enthusiasm about the book or seem faked.	Very little use of body language or facial expressions. Did not generate any enthusiasm for the book.
Posture & Eye Contact	Straight posture is presented. Looks relaxed and confident. Establishes eye contact during presentation.	Straight posture is presented. Establishes eye contact during presentation.	Posture is lacking. Does not establish eye contact during presentation.
Time Limit	Presentation is 1-2 minutes	Presentation is about the right	Presentation is less than 1

SKYPE CULMINATING PROJECT

	long and well paced.	time, but timing and pacing are slightly off.	minute or more than 3 minutes. Timing and pacing are way off.
--	----------------------	---	--